BEAUFORT -- Residents of Beaufort County's two northern municipalities have chosen local businessman Dick Stewart to fill a vacant seat on the Beaufort County Council, according to Tuesday's unofficial election results.

Stewart, the petition candidate for the District 11 council seat that represents Beaufort and Port Royal, received 64 percent of the votes to Republican candidate Mary Beth Gray-Heyward's 36 percent.

Stewart, who owns 303 Associates, a real estate management and development firm on Bay Street, will fill the remaining three years of the County Council term left vacant by the March resignation of Robert Cuttino.

Stewart will be sworn in to office at the council's next meeting July 28.

About 28 percent or 1,552 of the 5,537 eligible voters for the special election cast their ballots Tuesday.
